Adventures in the Lush Rainforest

Amazon River Voyage and Peru

Explore vast rainforests and discover exotic habitats during this exciting Amazon River expedition! In an atmosphere of adventure and romance, embark the impeccable Jewels of the Amazon and cruise beyond the Amazon's legendary headwaters to the confluence of the Río Ucayali and the Río Marañón rivers. Venture into a region of remote jungles and black-water rivers, walk through lush rainforests guided by expert naturalists, and enjoy special excursions through the Amazon's secret tributaries. Visit traditional villages and observe unique wildlife, including gray and pink river dolphins, capuchin monkeys, and three-toed sloths. Enjoy Peru's historic and cosmopolitan capital city of Lima, and continue your journey with the special Machu Picchu postprogram option.

Jewels of the Amazon— The impeccably crafted, first-class Jewels of the Amazon riverboats are specifically designed to cruise the upper Amazon River. Combining classic 19th-century riverboat elegance with 21st-century comfort, each stateroom features private bathroom facilities and individual climate control. Onboard dining includes delicious Peruvian and international cuisine prepared daily from the freshest ingredients. Each vessel features observation decks and a full bar, and is equipped with excursion boats. Expert naturalists travel aboard and provide insight into the Amazon's amazing array of flora and fauna, as well as the cultures of the Amazon's indigenous peoples.
