

June 16-27, 2010 (12 days)
 from approx. $4,095 pp/do
 plus airfare and taxes
 dates and prices are subject to change
 Alumni Holidays

Crystal Waters and a Sea of Dreams

The Italian Lakes and the Dalmatian Coast

Discover a wealth of offshore islands, lovely beaches, and historic towns on this journey through Italy. Spend three nights in historic Stresa, nestled on the shores of Lake Maggiore. Venture out to see the Borromean Islands, cultural Milan, enchanting Verona, and romantic Venice. Then, embark on an epic adventure aboard the elegant Wind Surf. Cruise the sparkling Adriatic Sea to idyllic ports along the rugged Dalmatian Coast. Enjoy island beaches, bays and coves, superb mountain views, and old-world charm. Visit Koper, Slovenia, known for its rich architecture and cultural monuments. In Croatia, explore Rovinj, with its pastel-colored houses clustered along steep winding streets. Visit Split — known for its monumental fourth-century Diocletian’s Palace, a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Then see the virtually unchanged 13th-century walled city of Dubrovnik.

Daily Itinerary

- 1 depart for Milan.
- 2 arrive in Milan, transfer to Stresa, and stay at the Grand Hotel Bristol.
- 3 tour Stresa and the Borromean Islands.
- 4 visit Milan.
- 5 see Verona en route to Venice. Embark the Wind Surf.
- 6 spend the day touring Venice.
- 7 cruise along the Dalmatian coast. Visit Koper, Slovenia.
- 8 explore Rovinj, Croatia.
- 9 visit Split, Croatia.
- 10 tour Dubrovnik.
- 11 cruise the Adriatic Sea.
- 12 arrive back in Venice. Disembark the Wind Surf and return home.

