Passion Play of Oberammergau Cruise the Danube through Hungary, Austria, and Germany

Join us for a memorable journey and unique trip through the heart of Europe's Danube River. Combine an enchanting cruise aboard the deluxe Amadeus Symphony with the presentation of a legendary 376-year-old passion play. Cruise through the magical world of lush, forested hills where castles built for royalty tower above medieval cities, ornate Baroque churches look out over peaceful country towns, and an unrivaled legacy of art, architecture, and history recalls the glory of the Habsburg Empire. Along the way, visit the UNESCO World Heritage Sites of Budapest, Vienna, and Melk Abbey. Finally, drive through the breathtaking Bavarian Alps to the charming village of Oberammergau for a moving performance of the 2010 passion play. This fascinating rendition of the story of Jesus Christ is presented every 10 years on an open-air stage and features a cast of thousands. Revel in the history, costumes, scenery, and orchestral accompaniment that make this a truly unique event.
