

August 18-26, 2010 (9 days)
 from approx. $1,255 pp/do
 plus airfare and taxes
 dates and prices are subject to change
 Avalon Waterways/Globus

Bonnie Scotland

Celtic lore and lure of the Highlands

The breathtaking scenery of the Scottish Highlands awaits you in this beautiful nine-day journey that includes Celtic culture and lore. Upon arrival in Glasgow, follow the “Bonnie Banks” of Loch Lomond, and take the ferry for your overnight stay on the romantic Isle of Skye. Travel into remote areas of the highlands, visit unique Inverewe Garden, and keep a lookout for the mysterious Loch Ness monster as you make your way to Inverness. Visit a whisky distillery and stunning Braemar, and then travel to St. Andrews where you will have the opportunity to play a round of golf at St. Andrews Links Golf Course. At Scone Palace, learn about the crowning of Scottish kings, and enjoy a two-night stay in the Scottish capital of Edinburgh. Visit its mighty castle and the Queen’s Holyrood Palace, and then discover Edinburgh at your own pace. A return to Glasgow via the New Lanark UNESCO World Heritage Site completes your Scottish experience.

The breathtaking scenery of the Scottish Highlands awaits you in this beautiful nine-day journey that includes Celtic culture and lore. Upon arrival in Glasgow, follow the “Bonnie Banks” of Loch Lomond, and take the ferry for your overnight stay on the romantic Isle of Skye. Travel into remote areas of the highlands, visit unique Inverewe Garden, and keep a lookout for the mysterious Loch Ness monster as you make your way to Inverness. Visit a whisky distillery and stunning Braemar, and then travel to St. Andrews where you will have the opportunity to play a round of golf at St. Andrews Links Golf Course. At Scone Palace, learn about the crowning of Scottish kings, and enjoy a two-night stay in the Scottish capital of Edinburgh. Visit its mighty castle and the Queen’s Holyrood Palace, and then discover Edinburgh at your own pace. A return to Glasgow via the New Lanark UNESCO World Heritage Site completes your Scottish experience.

Daily Itinerary

- 1 take a trans-Atlantic flight.
- 2 arrive in Glasgow.
- 3 explore Glasgow, Fort William, and the Isle of Skye.
- 4 tour the Isle of Skye, Inverness, Culloden Moor, and the highlands.
- 5 see the highlands, Braemar, and Dundee.
- 6 tour Dundee, St. Andrews, and Edinburgh.
- 7 enjoy Edinburgh.
- 8 see Edinburgh, New Lanark, and travel back to Glasgow.
- 9 return home.

