

October 11-24, 2010 (14 days)

from approx. $3,299 pp/do includes airfare from PHX and LAX dates and prices are subject to change

Go Next

Best of the Mediterranean and Greek Isles Oceania Cruises — Venice to Athens (Piraeus)

“Your world. Your way” — the motto of Oceania Cruises redefines living on the water. Enjoy succulent foods and the roar of the ocean as you luxuriate in the ship’s country-club ambience, endless choice of activities, and relaxing ambience. Explore the legendary lands and the historic past of the Eastern Mediterranean aboard the luxurious and intimate 684-passenger Regatta. Indulge in the finest cuisine at sea, designed by world-renowned chef Jacques Pépin. Relax in your lavishly-appointed stateroom and let yourself be pampered by the exceptionally attentive staff. All your wants and needs are catered to aboard the Regatta. Begin your journey in Venice — the magical city of canals and bridges — and weave through the colorful tapestry of Eastern Europe. See Croatia’s jewel — the Venetian-influenced medieval city of Dubrovnik — and then Kotor, Montenegro — a town of twisting, pink paved streets. Sail to Greece, whose legendary isles echo of empires and antiquity. Begin in Corfu — a land of glorious beaches and gentle mountains — and stop in Delphi, Zakynthos, Monemvasia, Crete, and Santorini. Enjoy a sojourn to the ancient ruins of Kusadasi, Turkey, before returning to Greece. Conclude your leisurely voyage on the isles of Delos and Mykonos. Float down a meandering canal, gaze upon medieval walls, and walk the winding cobbled streets of these fascinating ports of call — a truly fantastic itinerary!

Daily Itinerary

- 1 depart the U.S.
- 2-3 Embark the Regatta at 3 p.m.
Visit Venice.
- 4 tour Dubrovnik, Croatia.
- 5 explore Kotor, Montenegro.
- 6 discover Corfu, Greece.
- 7 see Delphi (Itea), Greece.
- 8 visit Zakynthos, Greece.
- 9 take in Monemvasia, Greece.
- 10 tour Aghios Nikolaos (Crete), Greece.
- 11 explore Santorini, Greece.
- 12 discover Kusadasi, Turkey.
- 13 take in Delos, Greece, in the morning and visit Mykonos in the afternoon.
- 14 explore Athens (Piraeus) and disembark to return home.

(Please note:

The itinerary may operate in reverse order.)

