

UA Class of '59 Golden Reunion

50-Year Reunion at Homecoming
on The University of Arizona campus
November 5-8, 2009

Welcome to Your Class of '59 Reunion!

The Class of 1959 reunion will take place on The University of Arizona campus during Homecoming, November 5-8, 2009. We have many fun activities planned, as you will see in the included schedule.

Some of the highlights include our Thursday-night class reunion reception and dinner, and dancing to the sounds of the Tom Patrick Band.

On Friday, we will “go back to the classroom” with a keynote lecture by one of the UA’s outstanding professors. This will be followed by lunch, where we will hear the State of the University address from UA President Robert N. Shelton. And, you don’t want to miss Friday night’s bonfire and pep rally on the west side of Old Main!

Saturday will begin with a walking tour of campus led by current UA students, followed by Tents on the Mall and the football game.

Our wonderful weekend will conclude on Sunday with our Wildcat for Life wrap-up brunch.

We hope you will join us for this special weekend. Better yet, we hope you will contact your fellow classmates with whom you maintain contact and urge them not to miss our reunion weekend!

Please feel free to contact any of us via the information listed below.

We hope (and expect!) to see you in November!
